

Stranger

Elisa

Stranger you look so different some other thoughts fill up your mind and you just made it happen got me thinking of you in my life and now

I hope that my wish's not so weak I hope that my will is enough enough

'cause you made it all good for me yeah
you made it all right
you made it all good for me yeah
you made it just fine

stranger can you forgive me if it sounds like I know you too well it's just that you have been like water when I was feeling so thirsty

oh and now I think of you though you don't know the reason why I love you so but never mind

'cause you made it all good for me yeah
you made it just fine

yet I know it'd be too much to wait for your love it'd be sad to wait for anything... your anything... so I sing... sing the words that I would say to you sing the time that would spend with you... with you...

'cause you made it all good for me yeah
just fine

could I feel higher?
could I feel better?
could I feel happier?
could I feel higher?

some other thoughts fill up my mind
