

With the Hurt

Elisa

Nothing can give us back this time we've wasted we weren't thinking straight act like you don't know tangled in this games we play...With no meaning too late to regret them i pray we'll learn to let go hum hum hum hum...

I pray we'll learn to let go pray we'll learn to let go
mother you could not let me go still you couldn't keep me from pain keep me away from it all

father it was all out of love but tell me why it tears me apart why do we end up with the hurt...

Hurt...Hurt...Hurt...Hurt...Hurt...Hurt...Hurt...Hurt...

So tired of hearing that time fixes everything mistakes keep repeating i can't make sense of it all you're my palm reader, wanna know every secret i can't stop trying to change you, if you would take me for who i am hum hum hu hum hum...

Can you take me for who i am?
Can you take me for who i am?

Can you take me for who i am?
Can you take me for who i am?

still you couldn't keep me from pain
keep me away from it all

but tell me why it tears me apart why do we end up with the hurt...Hurt...Hurt...Hurt...

Mother i keep letting you down tell me why it's never enough i end up with nothing at all father you would not let me fall but why are you afraid to look down afraid we'll end up with the hurt mother why do we act so cold?...

The difference it would have made to realize we were the same and all the good we could have done if we had felt like we were one you're my palm reader, wanna know all my secrets i could stop trying to change you, can you take me for who i am?

Mother you could not let me go
still you couldn't keep me from pain
keep me away from it all

but tell me why it tears me apart
why do we end up with the hurt...

Hurt... Hurt... Hurt...

Mother i keep letting you down
father you would not let me fall

hurt hurt hurt hurt
hurt hurt hurt hurt...
