

Unless You Want Me

Eliza Gilkyson

Don't turn the light out
Don't let the night in
Unless you want me now
Don't take your clothes off
Or bear your soft skin
Unless you want me now

Don't turn your gaze on me
Unless you want the whole of my caress
To touch your soul
To come to rest in the moonlight
Don't close your eyes and
Breathe with the soft wind
Unless you want me now
Unless you want me

My body aches when you draw near
Your fragrance whispers in my ear
I can't hold back my feelings here
In the moonlight
Don't touch my body
Don't even smile at me
Unless you really want me now
Unless you want me now

Don't turn the light out
Don't let the night in
Unless you want me
