

Typical Me

Ella Eyre

I look at your face, I know I'll never be safe
Cause you're my favorite mistake
Oh you're my favorite mistake
I'm just a victim of faith, ain't got the words to explain
This kinda stupid behavior

This is a bad idea, this is the fuck up of the year
How'd you inappear, I see you hanging around
And you're no good, it's clear
Only gonna end in tears, it's a bad idea
Oh no, no

Look what you made me do, I'm tripping over you
You're so predictable
Don't you know, it's typical me
I try to leave you behind, but I'm a fool every time
You're so typical, typical
It's typical me

I keep my cuts out of side, because I know what you like
But the more I try to hide, the more you take
I should take my own advice, because I'm crossing the line
The more I try to fight, the more I break

This is a bad idea, this is the fuck up of the year
How'd you inappear, I see you hanging around
And you're no good, it's clear
Only gonna end in tears, it's a bad idea
Oh no, no

Look what you made me do, I'm tripping over you
You're so predictable
Don't you know, it's typical me
I try to leave you behind, but I'm a fool every time
You're so typical, typical
It's typical me

I know you're not the one for me
But it ain't easy to let you go
Starting up is fine, but in the end it will be hard
Oh-oh, it's a bad idea
Oh I see you hanging around

Look what you made me do, I'm tripping over you
You're so predictable
Don't you know, it's typical me
I try to leave you behind, but I'm a fool every time
You're so typical, typical
It's typical me

This is a bad idea, it's the fuck up of the year
Typical, typical, typical me
This is a bad idea, it's the fuck up of the year
Typical, typical, typical me
