

Pieces

Ella Henderson

You say that it's alright
Right when we live in pieces
But pieces fall apart
A part of you is missing
Mr Done With Thinking
I think we went too far

Now every time we talk we say a little less
And every time we kiss it ends up in a mess

You say that it's alright
Right when we live in pieces
But pieces fall apart
The pieces of my heart

No you can't fake love
Love ain't a game you play
You played me from the start
It starts to end today
Today I've had enough
Enough to give you up
I'm up and out this place
A place where you can't get me

Woah oh oh oh
Woah oh oh oh
Woah oh oh oh
Woah oh oh oh
Woah oh oh oh
Woah oh oh oh
Woah oh

And when we started out
Out in those I Love You days
The days that seemed so bright
You brightened up inside
The side of you I loved
The love we had you crucified

Now every time you laugh
It seems to make me cry
And when we say the truth
We're only telling lies
But when we started out
Out in those I Love You days
The days that seemed so bright
But I can't make it right

No you can't fake love
Love ain't a game you play
You played me from the start
It starts to end today

Woah oh oh oh
Woah oh oh oh
Woah oh oh oh
Woah oh oh oh
Woah oh oh oh
Woah oh oh oh
Woah oh

So watch me run away now, way now
'Cause now I'm gonna break out, break out
I'll break into the place where I'm alive, and oh

Can't fake love
Can't fake love, no

No you can't fake love
Love ain't a game you play
It starts to end today

Woah oh oh oh
Woah oh oh oh
Woah oh oh oh
Woah oh oh oh
Woah oh oh oh
Woah oh oh oh
Woah oh

You say that it's alright
