

Rockets

Ella Henderson

Oh, nobody knows but you
How to make me come alive
And oh, my heart explodes
Kaboom
Like rockets in the sky

Are you some kind of mind reader
'Cause you know all the things to say
You brighten up my darkest days, days yeah
I'm not afraid to say that I need ya
And I know it sounds insane
But boy I never felt this way, way yeah

Three, two, one, look where we are
Got me launching to the stars
Woah, let's go

And oh, nobody knows but you
How to make me come alive
And oh, my heart explodes
Kaboom
Like rockets in the sky

Hit me like a crash of thunder
Yeah you knocked me off my feet
And promised that you'll never leave, leave yeah
This must be a spell I'm under
'Cause if I'm dreaming let me sleep
'Cause I don't want to ever break free, no

Three, two, one, look where we are
Got me launching to the stars
Woah, let's go

And oh, nobody knows but you
How to make me come alive
And oh, my heart explodes
Kaboom
Like rockets in the sky

Like rockets, can't stop this
Our love is hotter than flames
We're shooting out of this place, yeah
Like rockets, we got this
And I know it won't ever change
'Cause we're shooting out of this place, oh

Oh, nobody knows but you
How to make me come alive
And oh, my heart explodes
Kaboom
Like rockets in the sky
Boy are you some kind of mind reader
Not afraid to say that I need ya, no, no, no, no, no, no, no
You hit me like a crash of thunder
This must be a spell that I'm under
Like rockets in the sky
