Kocaine Karolina down to your bones Fireworks in your heart make it far from home Every morning you wake up alone just the same Who would wanna live longer anyway

Easy days will come
When you rest your heavy soul
Oooooo
Easy days will come
When your hard living is done

Poke your skinny spirit to keep a man Whats left of your flesh slipped from his hand Lonely looking eyes have done you wrong Don't waste a way until your gone

Kocaine Karoline
Your down to your bones
Don't waste away until your gone
Don't waste away until your gone
