

Make You Smile

Elle King

I like what you do and I like that you keep doin' it
Your eyes look mighty fine I really think I'm losin' it
Oh oh oh
Oh oh oh
Pretty boy, don't be shy
Like all your bad ideas
Ain't this a nice surprise to find a man so dear
Oh oh oh
Oh oh oh

Say you'll be my baby and I'll be your girl and
You can have this heart of mine,
'Cause I would walk a thousand miles
Just to make you smile

You taste like sugar mints and cigarettes and beer
I used to hate this town but I'll stay because you're here
oh oh oh
oh oh oh
All them skinny girls are bitter and reserved
If you want a lot of love then I'm just what you deserve
oh oh oh
oh oh oh
oh oh oh
oh oh oh

Say you'll be my baby and I'll be your girl and
You can have this heart of mine,
'Cause I would walk a thousand miles
If you say you'll be my baby, I will be your girl and
You can have this heart of mine,
'Cause I would walk a thousand miles
Just to make you smile
