

32 Flavors

Elle Varner

OOooooooooohhhh
OOooooooooohhhh
Squint your eyes and look closer
I'm not between you and your ambition
I am a poster girl with no poster
I am 32 flavors and then some
And I'm beyond your peripheral vision
So you might want to turn your head
Cause one day you might find you are hungry
And eating most of the words you just saaaaiidd saaaaiidd

Yo I just gotta say somethin right quick
Alright
Growing up nobody understood me
They didn't understand what I was doin, what I was about Why I had glasses on, why I wore what I wore, and this that and the third
But you know what I'm here now
And I'm doing my thing and what I wanna tell you is
If you out there and you different and you got your own swag
You got your own shit going on Don't let nobody in this world take you away form that Cause that's all you got

Squint your eyes and look closer
I'm not between you and your ambition
I am a poster girl with no poster
I am 32 flavors and then some
And I'm beyond your peripheral vision
So you might want to turn your head
Cause one day you might find you are hungry
And eating most of the words you just saaaaiidd saaaaaiiidd
OOooooooooohh
OOooooooooohh
