

Fighting Words

Ellie Holcomb

Fear is like a broken record, same old songs of accusation play
Like, "who are you to speak the truth, just look at all your failures and mistakes"

And "If they really knew you, there's no way they could love you anyway"

Oh-oh-ohh, but I will...

Fight the lies with the truth, oh-ohh

Keep my eyes fixed on You

I will sing the truth into the dark

I will use my fighting words

Oh-oh-ohh, fighting words

Oh-oh-ohh

The enemy keeps talking, telling me to hide my face in shame
Whispering that everything I've done will drive the Father's love away

Saying, "It's too late for hoping, that something in your heart could ever change"

Oh-oh-ohh, so I will...

Fight the lies with the truth, oh-ohh

Keep my eyes fixed on You

I will sing the truth into the dark

I will use my fighting words

Oh-oh-ohh, fighting words

Oh-oh-ohh

My debt is paid up

I've been set free and

You gave Your life up to rescue me

You say that I am

Worth fighting for and

Grace is like waves that keep crashing on the shore!

Fight, the lies with the truth, oh-oh-ohh

Keep my eyes fixed on You

I will sing the truth into the dark

I will use my fighting words

Oh-oh-ohh, fighting words

Oh-oh-ohh...

I'm so tired of forgetting what I'm worth

So I will use, my fighting words
