

Lucky Star

Elliot Minor

I heard you fall
i thought of all the years we spent
They seem so far away now
A broken heart
Left undone
Tied to imagination
Letting go
it seem so hard
Lighting up and burning out
My lucky star

So i might try
To bring back what we had back then
Cause time is moving quickly now
Still out of reach
Giving in i start to fall to pieces
Letting go
It seems so hard
Lighting up and burning out
My lucky star (Yeah Yeah)
My lucky star (Yeah Yeah)
My lucky star (Keeps on burning out)
My lucky star (Keeps on burning out)

And when time tells me that we're moving on
Soon we'll fall to pieces
Soon we'll fall to pieces
'Til then we'll move to far
Gazing at that lucky star
My lucky Star (Yeah Yeah)
My lucky star (Yeah Yeah)
My lucky star (Keeps on burning out)
My lucky star (Keeps on burning out)
Tonight
