

Good Outweigh The Bad

Elliott Yamin

We only say what we're suppose to say
I kissed your lips and then you turned away
Do you only wanna make me stay
Just to have me
Mmm...

It seems like everyday's a situation
I used to think we were the perfect combination
I know you love me
But can you still say that you are happy?

Remember when I used to make you smile?
Now I'm feeling like it's been a while
So I gotta know the truth
Can we make it through?
Tell me what to do
Because I'm starting to ask myself

Does the good outweigh the bad?
Or are we better on our own?
Can we get back what we had?
Or is it time to let it go?
And it hurts to say it but
Feels like we givin up
Baby we can make it
But we I think we need to ask ourselves
Does the good outweigh the bad?

Now we been showing all the telltale signs
I call you up... YOU'RE ALWAYS ON THE OTHER LINE
Now I don't ever say what's on my mind
Do you feel me? Can you feel me?
And girl I miss you when you're not around
Cause your the sweetest thing I ever found
But I see it in your eyes
Something isn't right
Is it worth a fight?
Or are you starting to ask yourself?

Does the good outweigh the bad?
Or are we better on our own?
Can we get back what we had?
Or is it time to let it go?
And it hurts to say it but
Feels like we givin' up
Baby we can make it
But we I think we need to ask ourselves
Does the good outweigh the bad?

And I know it's hard to imagine
After all that we been though
Should we save this ship or abandon?
I don't know what to doo...

Please tell me
Can we get back what we had?

Does the good outweigh the bad?
(Does the good outweigh the bad? Yeahhh)
Can we get back what we had?
(Can we get it back, Hey, can we get it back? Oh Yeahhh)
Or is it time to let it go?
And it hurts to say it but
Feels like we givin' up
Baby we can make it
But I think we need to ask ourselves
Does the good outweigh the bad?
(Does the good outweigh the bad?)

Does the good outweigh the bad?
(Does the good outweigh the bad? Oh Yeahhh)
Can we get back what we had?
(Can we get it back, Hey, can we get it back? Ohhh)
Or is it time to let it go?
And it hurts to say it but
Feels like we givin' up
Baby we can make it
But I think we need to ask ourselves
Does the good outweigh the bad?
