

Paint The World

Elliphant

It was a sunni, afternoon u confronted me, it was a sunni, a sunni Sunday, I had a feelin u go some fun and some foggy, af ter one two to five glasses of fine fukkin' rom, i met ma self, thats how i know all of ur secrets, cos i left ma self, n i wi ll never fear again I, wish we could run na, fast like a shot, wish we had a bigger plan but i'm afraid we have not, ain't got much but we got color, ain't got much but we got colo r he said, ain't got much but we got color, color could be the way to conquer them,

i paint the whole wide world for u mami, paint the whole wide w orld for me papi, if we paint together we can make a change, th ings will never ever be the same

i paint the whole wide world for u mami, paint the whole wide w

remember sunni, afternoons up in unity, about the question, no answer of me', i had a feelin' u go some dumb n some happy, aft er one two to five glasses of fine fukkin' rom, we grace this shit, that's how we burst all of ur fiction cos we wake this sh it, n we will never sleep again, wish we grow high, big as a li e which we could be blind, to be apart for a wile, na we ain't got much but we got color, aint got much but we got color he said, aint got much but we got color, color could be the way to conquer them

orld for me papi, if we paint together we can make a change, th

orld for me papi, if we paint together we can make a change, th

orld for me papi, if we paint together we can make a change, th

i met a shady dog wet from the storms n he said, bb if i could i paint the whole world red for u, blood red for u, i paint the whole god damn shit red,

break,
paint the world!!!
