

Back Into The Present

Eloy

Back into the present, it's different since I've been away
War and desolation, it's getting worse with every day
Even back in 1358
People had to fight to keep things straight

Waiting in the disco, tell my friends just what I've seen
They won't believe my story when I tell them where I've been Smoke and lights and music blow my mind
Must go somewhere quiet to unwind