

Escape To The Heights

Eloy

Civilisation ending
A mystic silent sound
No more spirits rising
Wasteland all around
Bursting open the wall, no longer down hearted
I am hearing the call, my mind is feeling my heart
Evil eyes around me
No movement on my own
Cannot shake their present
No visions here to roan
Bursting open the wall, no longer down hearted
I am hearing the call, my mind is feeling my heart
Deserted faces crowding me, staring cold ahead
Not conscious of their destiny, my heart won't be lead
I'll escape to the heights, now, now
Yonder in the distance
A glowing ray of light
Escape from isolation
And shadows in the night
I'll escape to the heights, achieving new frontiers
I've a reason to fight, rejecting old values
Leave the darkness behind, I'm feeling my freedom now
