

In Disguise

Eloy

ballet on ice
you will fall before you know - hey watch where you go beat the retreat everytime you have to choose - hey you'll always lose the back is where you've found your seat happy that you've got off cheap

cameras replace your eyes offering life in disguise integrity two of a kind depends on how it's defined
offering too many lies time's a healer don't react just call it fate

the governing few saluted like uniforms - hey where were you born talk when you're asked sign when you see dotted lines - hey don't take your time don't you ever contemplate before you find out it's too late as long as your illusions will put you to confusion - disturb nothing will force, provoke or motivate to react you sport a line of sight which comes close to being blind
