

Voice Of Revolution

Eloy

I'm sure, that day will come
When we shall overcome
There's no more hesitation
For the sun will greet the day

I know you get your morning
People are near
Ready to hear
Trying to understand you

You still remember how
People forget someone
Therefore you have to call
Up their minds in all
Give out your message now
And all do understand
And if you realize
You can get your price

I want to know
How you just feel
When everyone
Just gets his meal
When freedom bells
Are ringing then

I'm sure, that day will come
When we shall overcome
There's no more hesitation
For the sun will greet the day

I know you get your morning
People are near
Ready to hear
Trying to understand you

I want to know
How you just feel
When everyone
Just gets his meal
When freedom bells
Are ringing then
