Blues For My Baby And Me

Elton John

Your old man got mad when I told him we were leaving He cursed and he raged and he swore at the ceiling He called you his child, said, "Honey get wise to his game He'll get you in trouble, I know it, those bums are all the sam e" There's a Greyhound outside in the lane, it's waiting for us So tell him goodbye, we gotta go west on that bus

And it's all over now, don't you worry no more Gonna go west to the sea The Greyhound is swaying and the radio's playing Some blues for baby and me

And the highway looks like it never did Lord, it looks so sweet and so free And I can't forget that trip to the west Singing blues for baby and me

Saw your hands trembling, your eyes opened in surprise It's ninety in the shade, babe, and there ain't a cloud in the sky I called you my child, said, "Honey, now this is our game There's two of us to play it and I'm happy to be home again" There's a Greyhound outside in the lane, it's waiting for us So tell him goodbye, we gotta go west on that bus

And it's all over now, don't you worry no more We're gonna go west to the sea The Greyhound is swaying and the radio's playing Some blues for baby and me

And the highway looks like it never did Lord, it looks so sweet and so free And I can't forget that trip to the west Singing blues for baby and me

And it's all over now, don't you worry no more We're gonna go west to the sea The Greyhound is swaying and the radio's playing Some blues for baby and me

And the highway looks like it never did Lord, it looks so sweet and so free And I can't forget that trip to the west Singing blues for baby and me
