Sugar On The Floor

Elton John

You're a stranger to me Then you give me your life I toss it to one side Still you're sweeter to me When we lie on the shore

It's warm where you are But my lips just don't burn I feel so insecure When you try to be kind Could I ask for more

Looking at you now I know you only want to find me Still I need a reason to leave the past behind me Behind me There ain't no easy way To learn how to fly I hope that I can kill When I turn around you're there Should I ask for more I feel like sugar on the floor I feel like sugar on the floor
