

Lost In The Rain

Elusive

Hold me
it's getting dark
hold me
it's in my heart
I've seen the smoke
the shapes of fear
there is no way out of here and I know this feeling coming down on me

so take my hand
and stay here for a while all the times I've tried so hard but I can't hide
you say there's a star that keeps on shining through the clouds tonight but I'm lost in the rain and it's coming down

hold me
I'm feeling cold
hold me
I'm so alone
the things I've done
that I can't mend
always on my mind
now I know this feeling
coming down on me

hold me
it's getting dark
hold me
it's in my heart
in your eyes

a shattered hope
reflection of a tear
and all these feelings
coming back again
