Church Underground

Elvis Costello

She stood spotlit in a plain print dress Came howling out of the wilderness There beat a cunning and murderous heart Beneath that calm exterior

"You know my name
You don't know my mind
Don't doubt my eyes
They betray the past
And I've already forgotten
Much more than you will ever know"

And every word that I have spoken is true Except for those that were broken in two

I'm trying to make peace after a long night of pretend I need a pawnbroker or moneylender

Why do you do me down, Mister?
Sing "Hallelujah," Sister
Turn up the volume, just to turn it down
The trivial secrets buried with profound
It's enough to put a Church Underground

Deflowered young and then ever since She's tried to wash off his fingerprints So every charlatan and prince Was made to feel inferior

She worked for tips in a 10-cent dance Said moving pictures might pay perchance 10,000 one-way tickets to the sparkling coast From the blank interior

Everybody's either talking in code Or getting ready to explode

Then she was singing with five-piece band But seems that no-one wants this sound

Why do you do me down, Mister?
Sing "Hallelujah," Sister
Turn up the volume, just to turn it down
The trivial secrets buried with profound
It's enough to put a Church Underground

The shaft of fanlight streaked with rain

Poured through the glass, punched through the pain

A holy picture hidden in the midden of that poisoned stitch

Her lonely voice was just a ruin in these riches

Must have been dreaming this all along Could she be redeeming herself in song? "I'm no-one's martyred, plaster saint Below the grease, beneath the paint"

I'm rolling like barrel

Swinging like a gallows
I'm rising up fast like all hell and all hallows

Why do you do me down, Mister?
Sing "Hallelujah," Sister
I'll be damned or purgatory bound
Before those jokers ever understand
It's enough to put a Church Underground
