For the Millionth and the Last Time

Elvis Presley

For the millionth and the last time Darling let me hold you tight
One more kiss and then I promise
I will say my last goodnight

Though your lips are so inviting And I know I'll wanna stay Give me one more kiss to dream on And I'll be on my way

It seems a million or so kisses ago We said goodnight at your door I didn't get far 'cause here we are And I'm still begging for more

Whilst the millionth and the last star Slowly disappears from sight For the millionth and the last time Let me kiss you good-night

It seems a million or so kisses ago We said goodnight at your door I didn't get far 'cause here we are And I'm still begging for more

Whilst the millionth and the last star Slowly disappears from sight For the millionth and the last time Let me kiss you good-night Let me kiss you good-night Let me kiss you good-night
