

Loss

Elysion

Walls between us have become so high
I can't bare the loss
Can't stand the fight
My devotion turns to dust
And your guilt won't make it better
All my feelings for you froze inside

Now you want me to forget
Cause you know I have no resistance
Look I'm fighting with myself again
All the loss you caused me feels
Like a wound that can't stop bleeding
Have to face the truth
No trust in you

Now you want me to forget
Cause you know I have no resistance
Look I'm fighting with myself again

Now you want me to forget
Cause you know I have no resistance
Look I'm fighting with myself again
All the loss you caused me feels
Like a wound that can't stop bleeding
Have to face the truth
No trust in you
