

The Promise

Elysion

Should the sun not dawn again
Should the birds not fly
Should this world come to an end and all left's you and I
Should the stars all lose their shine
Should the oceans dry
Should the angels drop their wings, fall to earth and die
I'll reach for you

Don't leave me be
Don't kill my thrill
I've been waiting for you
Don't leave me be
Don't kill my thrill
I'm forever lovin' you

Should the sun not dawn again
I will burn the sky
Should this world come to an end
I will make it right
Should the stars all lose their shine
I will light up mine
Should your angel drop his wings
I will help you fly
I'll reach for you

Don't leave me be
Don't kill my thrill
I've been waiting for you
Don't leave me be
Don't kill my thrill
I'm forever lovin' you

Don't leave me
I'll be there...
I'm forever lovin' you

Don't leave me
I'll be there...
Forever
