

Say Hello to the Bad Guy

Emarosa

Better find a way
Better find a way
To tell you got to make amends.
Don't wait until it's done.
I know I had it all
but say hello.
wait for nothing.

you will find my failures.
you will let me go.
and you'll know
you had it all.
but say hello.
wait for me.

well I never had faith,
I never had love.
do you believe in me?
you can have me but I'm broken in two.
so say hello.
wait for me.

and you wait for something on your own.
and you wait for something all alone.
