As little moments fade
They come forth the night
Demanding all I think about
Maybe its how we roll

Well I cant get better of ???
I won't be letting her out
And I cant keep drowning this down

Owe your eyes they glow
So pretty they've lost their word,
They king me of love
And I know I'm dead inside
I'm reminded every night
So girl, just knowing wont be me

One girl is destroying this moment
Open, and tell me everything that I can't help but see
Contagious lies they never leave

The girl in my eyes
The girl you cant even see
Ya the girl I'm waking, waking up

Owe your eyes they loath
So pretty they've lost their word,
They king me of love
And I know I'm dead inside
I'm reminded every night
So girl, just knowing wont be me

Did you know some girls
Its never been enough to notice,
Enough to notice how I am right
I'm close but not getting up,
Your close but not getting up,
I'm close but not getting up,
Getting off
I'm not getting off

Owe your eyes they loath
So pretty they've lost their word,
They king me of love
And I know I'm dead inside
I'm reminded every night
So girl, just knowing wont be me
