Embodiment

casualties of a non-war shooting themselves in the feet let me pray before you crush my heart and you swear that you do this in god's name stifling the psalms of the heart take your hands off my throat, let me breathe i'm suffocating
you slash my wrist gave me a network and devoured my art broadcast worldwide healing those for a price
and you swear that you do this in god's name
let me breathe
