

Pendulum

Embodiment

there's a hitch in the step the tower is leading grown a thousand years in a single heartbeat ripped and torn at the seams and he falters to his knees clutching hands while in her dreams sitting on weakness so that strength can stand look to the future, caressing the name angels are watching, spr eading their wings rest, my love, ride on the wings of sacred prayers aided by angelic force
ripped and torn at the seams
