

Believe In No One

embrace today

Look into the face of danger
And your integrity will lead you through.
There is nothing that I can do.
What the fuck are you running from?
So face your fears to fight this world alone.
Because everyday I fight and fight, I fucking fight.
Believe in none, you owe it to yourself.
Believe in no one and fight this world alone
And I, well, I'm the one to live with my mistakes.
To fight this world, so fuck this world.
I owe it to myself to be true.
You say that the image changed but it all remains the same.
Well, I've never changed and all this time
I stayed the same and those words
They never changed, they stayed the same.
