

Failures

embrace today

I won't hide behind my fucking words or my failures
I don't want you to fucking pray for me because I've been here a thousand times before
I never know what the fuck is in store
And I don't want you to fucking pray for me

I won't hide behind my fucking words
Some believe that everything in life comes for free
I will work until I bleed because anything doesn't come for free
I've been here a thousand times
I never know what the fuck is in store
I don't want you to fucking pray for me
And your days your fucking days won't come

When everything's the same
You say that things will change
Things won't change I will never hide behind my words
Things won't change and I will never turn my back on my friends
Things won't change
