

All You Good Good People

Embrace

I feel like I meant something
You always say, you need more time
Well, I'll stay right here
And I'll wait for good until I find a love worth mine

Someday, you've got it coming
It hurts me when I read the signs
So loud and clear, that I'll make you glad
If I'm leaving first and crying

All you good good people listen to me
You're just about done with the way that you feel
'Cause nothing rings home enough to dig your heels in
You don't have to leave me to see what I mean
All you good good people listen to me

And all I wanna do is find my name upon the line
Before I have to lose this I want time

All you good good people listen to me
You're just about done with the way that you feel
'Cause nothing rings home enough to dig your heels in
You don't have to leave me to see what I mean
Lose all your fears, they are keeping you down
You won't have to fake it, while I'm around
All you good good people listen to me
