

Chameleon

Embrace

A mobile phone in a body bag, will ring and ring as long, as the power lasts
And I crowbar every word in a one last chance
And I fight for all I'm worth
Just to bring you back

R: I'm a chameleon, I'm torn a billion different ways
You're my mirror, you see clearer every time I change
I come undone when I'm alone
The colours start to drain
You got to near and now the fear has come to take you away

The night draws nearer, and the air turns black
I can see things clearer, if I don't look back
I'm in One hell of a show, did I make you laugh?
As we stand here toe to toe, in the aftermath

R:

I gamble with the devil, just for one more day
To make you stay
I promise in my soul tomorrow, everything I am will only bend and break
I don't wanna wake

R:
