Free Ride

I want a free ride Just to see what it feels like But even if it feels right I'm no fool In the hospital where stretchers Are arms and hands I needed someone who could understand Although these things they Are never planned I wanna feel Something for free

I want a clear view With nothing there that I can't see through 'cos everybody wants to understand In the hospital where stretchers Are arms and hands I needed someone who could understand Although these things they Are never planned I wanna feel Something for free Embrace
