

No Use Crying

Embrace

I won't let you break
You'll live to fight another day
All so you feel safe
I'd take a bullet, jump a speeding train

I kick to stay afloat,
and end this sad song on a happy note
No one else came close, to making my heart stop

So you gotta wipe your eyes
Cos there's no use crying
I Know your sick of trying
But you know your day is gonna come
Wipe your eyes
Cos there's no use crying
I Know you're sick of trying
But you know your day is gonna come

But you know one day we'll run away
And they will hunt and chase
I will turn this place
Into a playground once again
Say you'll come with me
I will try to make you all feel safe

I Know you gotta wipe your eyes,
Cos there's no use crying,
Know your sick of trying
but you know your day is gonna come,

Know your day is gonna come
Know your day is gonna come
Know your day is gonna come

You've gotta wipe your eyes
Cos there's no use crying
I Know your sick of trying
But you know your day is gonna come
Wipe your eyes
Cos there's no use crying
I Know your sick of trying
But you know your day is gonna come
Know your day is gonna come
