Retread

Embrace

My girl is just a retread, I lost her when I hit the breaks Our love hit science fiction levels Now I'm bending 'cause I've made a mistake Here I stand afraid with no more to say

Now I feel so insecure
I can't save
Something I feel so much for
Won't you stay and leave a light for me

Now I've found myself redeemed
'Cause no one's seen the bad in me
Or been where I've been
And not turned to leave

And now I feel so insecure
I can't save
Something I feel so much for
Won't you stay

You know if you had a wing You'd be the last to know, you could fly He strokes your hair to keep you down Will you fight? Let's see you fight

Will you fight? Will you fight?

The good will out and I'll come clean There's nothing in between You and me, so let me go my way
