

The First Cut

Embrace

The first cut is the one you feel the others just to make it real

I know you and you just can't stop you show them what their lookin for Its you, but you still through the arrows you're brand new and all the rest of you just chase your shadow

I'm easy when ya need a friend, your perfect when you near the end Go get em I will hold your coat There's sevens on the dice they throw

And its you, but you bounce through the arrows I'm brand new cause I'm still in your shadow shadow..

shadow..
shadow...
