

The Good Will Out

Embrace

I saw you sing out your praise
Come on and lay
The sunshine of my life's been burned
And I didn't see the way

Swallow down your pride
It's wrong and I'll help you hide
I feel sincerely, you're too much
You're too much, all at the same time

Oh, I know much more of what I can
Than what I can't do
If I should fail, I'm gonna nail
The blame on you, all my blame on you

Get it wrong and it makes you sore
But you're never right
I see it clearly, you're too much
You're too much, we're all on the same side

There must be a time between the well meaning
When the good will come out and start the healing
You won't know how well you've played
Until you've won

And if at first you find you can't imagine
How good can heal
When you've got nothing worth healing
You won't know how well you're made
Until you're down and all you have is gone

The good will come out
The good will come out
The good will come out
