

Today

Embrace

Today I locked my fears away, turn the key and throw it away and leave all the badness behind and start again

Today I get to make it new.
Today I'm free,
The day we're through

There's no more worries I can't face,
I now there's nothing stacked so high,
I can't see the light from behind,
And clear the way,

Today I get to make it new,
Today I'm free, free to choose,
Today I get to start a new,
Today I'm free,
the day we're through
