

Hope

Emeli Sandé

I hope that the world stops raining,
Stops turning it's back on the young,
See nobody here is blameless,
I hope that we can fix all that we've done.
I really hope Martin can see this,
I hope that we still have a dream,
I'm hoping that change isn't hopeless,
I'm hoping to start it with me.

I just hope I'm not the only one,
I just hope I'm not the only one.

I hope we start seeing forever,
Instead of what we can gain in a day,
I hope we start seeing each other,
Cause don't we all bleed the same.
I really hope someone can hear me,
That a child doesn't bear the weight of a gun,
Hope I find the voice within me,
To scream at the top of my lungs.

I just hope I'm not the only one,
I just hope I'm not the only one.

Louder, I cannot hear you,
How can things be better left unsaid.
Call me, call me a dreamer,
But it seems like dreams are all that we've got left.

I hope we still have a heartbeat,
I hope we don't turn to snow,
A night when you turn the lights off,
I hope you don't cry alone.
I hope we stop taking for granted,
All of the land and all of the sea,
I'm taking a chance on loving,
I hope that you take it with me.

I just hope I'm not the only one,
I just hope I'm not the only one,
I just hope I'm not the only one.
