Five-year-old Superman got a beach towel cape
And he thinks he can
So he takes a dive off the chicken coop
Red behind and broken foot
Daddy said I hope you learned your lesson good
Yes sir, next time I'm gonna wear the Superman boots

Go on, give it a try
Go on, give it a try

Red rhinestones and a Silvertone
Opry playing on the radio
He says one day I'm gonna be on that stage
Spends all his time practicing
Gets a big break and it all begins
Now he waiting in the wings and Porters calling out his name

Believe
You can fly you can sing
Take a leap spread your wings
Believe
Have a little faith little trust
Little luck little love and dream
Whatever you want
But you've gotta believe

Go on, give it a try
Go on, give it a try
Go on, give it a try
Go on, give it a try

Her mom says its wasting tips in an all-night diner
Babies, boys and black eye liner
Its a woman's life it ain't rocket science
She set her site on the Ivy League
Got a full free ride and her PhD
Now shes down in Houston and shes one of NASA's finest

Go on, give it a try
Go on, give it a try

Hes 91 shes 85
Said by God were still alive
Lets go stepping out before cashing in
Take the Cadillac down to the Broken Spoke
Do the ole two-step or cotton-eyed Joe
Just like the south they're gonna rise again

Believe
You can fly you can dance
Take a leap take a chance
Believe
Have a little faith little trust
Little luck little love and dream
Whatever you want

Good things come to those who will believe
So believe

You can fly
Give it a try
You're gonna see
Whatever you want
Whatever you dream
If you believe

Go on, give it a try
Go on, give it a try
Go on, give it a try

You can fly you can sing
Believe

Go on, give it a try

You can fly you can dance
Believe

Go on, give it a try

You can fly you can sing
Take a leap spread your wings
Believe

Go on, give it a try

You can fly you can dance
