

Stone Angel

Emerson Drive

She stopped counting the times
Her heart's been broken
Too many promises and too many tears
Yeah each time somebody hurt her
She fell a little bit further
Heaven left her stranded here

She's a stone angel
Her wings are just too heavy to fly
She's a stone angel
It's not that there's no love left inside
She's just heard one too many goodbyes

Her dreams unguarded she was such an easy target
For every joker with a smoking gun
Yeah Yeah
For every lie they told her
She turned a little bit colder
Now she don't trust anyone

Na na na na na na
She's She's She's
A stone angel
Na na na na na na
A stone angel
