

You Still Own Me

Emerson Drive

I put a for sale sign on the front of my truck
Said call anytime cause I'm always up
Make an offer, one that I won't refuse
I bought a one way ticket on a westbound plane
Four hours later I was wearing shades in California
Just hanging loose

I didn't pack one memory
And even though I'm free

I can go where I wanna go
Do what I want to do
Be who I want to be
But baby, you still own me
Say what I want to say
Hear what I want to hear
Dream what I want to dream
But baby, you still own me

I was up all night cause I couldn't sleep
Instead of staring at the ceiling I hit the beach
Took a long walk, it didn't help me much
I sat down in the sand with a handful of shells
Kicked off my shoes while me myself and I watched
The Sun come up

Looking out across the sea
It's finally dawned on me

Maybe I'm not in your arms
(You own me)
But you still own my heart

You still owe me, yeah
You still owe me
