

Living Sin

Emerson, Lake & Palmer

Will you stand up or will you freeze
That savage woman make you pleased
Turn your inside outside in Still you don't know where she has been
Living sin

Can't you see through
She's going to realize the way to sound you

Finely ground you

Sullen
Never to be wanted by a one night lover
Tell you
Stories of a meeting with a younger brother
Twisting
All the people rather just to find a cover
No one
Ever got a body from a two-faced mother

Can't you see through
She's going to realize the way to sound you

Tipped you, never saw it coming
Hooked you up with Coca-Cola cunning
Nice and slippery