

Miss Behavin'

Emery

No! She won't, she won't, she won't wait!
No! She won't, she won't, she won't wait!
No! She won't, she won't, she won't wait!
No! She won't, she won't, she won't!

(I could never find such a pretty face, pretty face (2x))
Always what you meant, never what you said.
Passing over me like a book you've read.
But I let it fall, valet every wish.
Take my hands and eyes, but I beg you this:
Offer me one kiss.

If it's her you want, this is what it takes...
If it's her you want, this is what it takes...

Let's get this over.
(Let's get this over.)
Discuss and deny soon we simply just lie.
(Let's get this over.)
And wait and see if you choose something like me.
If you just open your eyes, you could get out of this,
But you're such a success, you're just not built for it.

I never knew (I never knew) how much it takes to accept...
I never knew (I never knew) how much it takes to accept
That you're a fake.

If you just open your eyes, you could get out of this,
(If you just open up your eyes)
But you're such a success, you're just not built for it.
(If you just open up your eyes)
If you just open your eyes, you could get out of this,
(If you just open up your eyes)
But you're such a success, you're just not built for it.
(If you just...)

Sometimes I think you just need
Sometimes I think you just need some time.
Sometimes I think I need some to get along without.
To get along without.
(To get along without.)
Everyone's saying that they've got the answers.
But hope is deceiving and spreads like a cancer.
To get along without.
