

Piggy Bank Lies

Emery

All these answers for the words that you omitted.
You omit them still.
Never thought I would find out,
but we're here now I'm aching for this, aching for it.

You said you'd never been with anyone else but you lied,
as you try say somehow that I was the one to blame.
Is this the way you've found for saving yourself (if lies were wealth) you need help, counting riches form your mouth's piggy bank.

I drove these streets to your front door,
so could you please just help me out?
It's sad to say but there's always more,
and you just stare like you can't hear us out.

Hide the suspects.
Hide the suspects.
Hide the suspects.
Hide the suspects.

This is where you say this is not what it looks like.
He's got his hands wrapped around your waist.
I want this, do you want it?
I hate this, but you flaunt it.
It sounds absurd, so I waited for my own eyes
to put a face on the person that built these lies.
Did you want this? 'Cause I want it.
Could have fooled me, cause I bought it.
(You have been found out)

I told myself it was the jealousy that caught my distrust, but I'm such a good pretender I surrendered my doubts.
Of all the liars number one is where you made your debut, but I'll teach you the truth, because I've figured you out.

I drove these streets to your front door,
so could you please just help me out?
It's sad to say but there's always more,
and you just stare like you can't hear a sound.

Hide the suspects.
Hide the suspects.
Hide the suspects.
Hide the suspects.
I've finally figured you out.
I've finally figured you out.

This is where you say this is not what it looks like.
He's got his hands wrapped around your waist.
I want this, do you want it?
I hate this, but you flaunt it.
It sounds absurd, so I waited for my own eyes
to put a face on the person that built these lies.
Did you want this? 'Cause I want it.
Could have fooled me, cause I bought it.

Trying to forget (I should have been careful)

wishing we never met (instead of faithful)
I should have been careful (I should have been careful)
I thought I was unbreakable
But sometimes, you find out (I should have been careful)
That you can not control your heart (instead of faithful) or regain the person that you were from the start (I should have been careful)

Hide the suspects.
Hide the suspects.
Hide the suspects.
Hide the suspects.

This is where you say this is not what it looks like.
He's got his hands wrapped around your waist.
I want this, do you want it?
I hate this, but you flaunt it.
It sounds absurd, so I waited for my own eyes
to put a face on the person that built these lies.
Did you want this? 'Cause I want it.
Could have fooled me, cause I bought it.
