

The Movie Song

Emery

I'm the guy that dies at the beginning of the movie.
I'm the one who never makes it out of the cave.
It's because just when I have got everything going for me baby, you come around and take it all away.

It's true, I'd do anything for you.

She asked if this is cool.
What did you say?
I played it like a fool.
Oh, no!
It's like I've said before, I could die tonight
for just one kiss more.

On the brink, about to sink.
I'm drowning baby and I can't think
Of a way to pull myself back to shore.
It's your face I can't take,
and my knees are about to buckle
The same way as they did
the night you walked through my door.

It's true, I'd do anything for you.

She asked if this is cool.
What did you say?
I played it like a fool.
Oh, no!
It's like I've said before, I could die tonight
for just one kiss more.

Every time my eyes are closing there is just one word.
Once it's spoken, my eyes open,
and I'm yours to serve.

When your world tries to blow itself up from the inside,
I will dig a foxhole for two.
So you know that I will always be there for you,
And maybe you would find a love for me too.

It's true, I'd do anything for you.

She asked if this is cool.
What did you say?
I played it like a fool.
Oh, no!
It's like I've said before, I could die tonight
for just one kiss more.

One kiss more.
Oh, my darling.
My love, just one.
Just one.
Just one.
