Babe

Emigrate

You're so pure, so sure again Whatever you do, we will laugh again I'm like you, a fool again Whenever I fell, I got up again

Babe you don't have to be afraid in my eyes Babe, don't be ashamed

Find your way and lose again Wherever you are you can choose again Your heart will break, and heal again And one day will come when you believe again

Babe, you don't have to be afraid in my eyes Babe, don't be ashamed Babe, you don't have to be afraid in my eyes Babe, I'm so glad that you stayed

Babe, you don't have to be afraid in my eyes Babe, don't be ashamed Babe, you don't have to be afraid in my eyes And I'm so glad that you stayed
