Hey girl I'm talking to you
I'm still unable to do
Everything you want me to
And by the way
I'm all addicted to you
Your love is all
Just all I ever wanted

Now you're walking out the door
With this fake smile on your face
You act like you were bored
But your eyes are craving for more
Oh yeah this is the truth you will deny girl

You were like a tatoo
We were like ball and chain
In this curious game
And by the way
I'm still addicted to love
But vanity spun it's net
Around our frozen hearts

Now you're walking out the door
With this fake smile on your face
You act like you were bored
But your eyes are craving for more
Oh yeah this is the truth you will deny girl

I remember you in all my prayers and dirty fantasies

Now you're walking out the door
With this fake smile on your face
Your act like you were bored
But your eyes are craving for more
Oh yeah this is the truth you will deny girl
