This Day

Emil Bulls

All play and no work makes christ a dull boy His life`s a misty lane I'm waiting for the night -to come I'm waiting for the spots -to shine I invite all my friends to be part of this dream

Tonight something extraordinary is possible There`s no right or wrong to our way This day is mine this day is yours Take a deep breath - it`ll blow your mind Sample the moment - loop it again Tape this day and rewind it

I know you never get enough ... ha... are you ready ... let's g o

Come feel the blood rush into your head The sound it creates in your ears We`re gonna dance tonight - for sure We`ll get our curtain call - once more Yes tonight we`re the boys with the most cake and toys
