

The Devil At My Door

Émilie Simon

"I saw the devil at my door
I saw the devil" she said
"I can give you more"

She was walking by my side
She said "Babe, if you trust me
You will never die"

But deep inside behind the door
No one knows which way to go
Do you really want to know

She stole my soul and ran away
I try to fix it every day
Well, she stole my soul what can I do
I'll take it back, and so will you
